A close-up photograph showing three identical white rectangular components arranged horizontally. Each component has a central vertical slot and a small circular feature on its right side.
